DEPIN SUBNET

U2U Network is a Layer 1 blockchain project with superior DAG technology and EVM compatibility. With its high scalability and security, U2U Network is the most advanced platform for applications related to AI, DePIN (Decentralized Physical Infrastructure Network), IoT applications, and transportation.

U2U develops a network scaling solution using Subnet technology - which helps increase performance and security for the entire system

Subnet allows the system to divide networks into smaller ones, enabling them to operate independently while ensuring smooth interaction with each other. This enables U2U Network to process data quickly without compromising security.

Transaction completion time 650ms

TPS up to 17K per sharding

Validators

The Backbone of U2U's Network

Validators are the cornerstone of U2U's network. They play a pivotal role in U2U distributed network by processing transactions and realtime participating in consensus mechanisms. This active involvement contributes significantly to making U2U the most censorship-resistant and one of the highest-performing blockchain networks in the world.

Delegators

Powering Network Validation

Delegators play a vital role in the validation process and are duly rewarded for their contribution to securing the network. Their role involves staking U2U Token by delegating them to validator nodes, thus fortifying the network's reliability and integrity.

Epoch Rewards

Fostering Network Security

Epoch rewards represent a critical component of our network. These rewards are drawn from our reserve and serve as a strong incentive for validators to join us in safeguarding the network. The rewards are distributed at the end of each epoch, and each epoch spans a duration of 7 minutes.
